

NEW GRADUATE STUDENT ORIENTATION

(Electrical Engineering, Computer Engineering & Telecommunications Engineering)

Fall 2018

August 10, 2018 @ 9:30 am – 2:00 pm

Venues: SLC 1.102 (MS) | SLC 2.302 (PhD)

Attendance is Mandatory

If attending, please click here to R.S.V.P online
by July 27, 2018 @ noon, 12 pm

Notes:

For International Students – The ECE New Graduate Student Orientation is different from the International Student Orientation, your presence is mandatory for both.

If you are a new RA or TA, attendance of the TA RA Orientation is mandatory, as well.

EE Students – Please indicate on the online RSVP the specialization area in which you will be studying; (MSEE concentration area or EE PhD research area) .

CE and TE students do not need to choose a specialization area.

- For other EE/CE/TE new graduate student orientation-related questions, email ece-gradprogram@utdallas.edu
- If unable to attend due to conflict in schedule, request online form for alternate orientation (link available on August 11-27)
- For deferment, see how to defer admissions
- To decline admission, see how to accept/decline admission
- For visa matters, see UTD-ISSO or email ISSO-Prospective@utdallas.edu (for both prospective and new students)